Lesson 3
Acts 3:1-26

1. Read Acts 3:1-12. Consider the crippled beggar. Why was he put at the temple gate every day? What was his “felt” need? What did he expect to receive from Peter? What was his “real” need?

2. The healing of the beggar is actually an illustration of salvation. List as many similarities as you find; such as, the man was born with a problem he could not solve, etc.

3. What were the immediate results of his healing? (vv. 8-10)

4. Read Acts 2:12-26 which is Peter’s second sermon, and think about the logical progression of his message. What is the main emphasis in each of the following passages?
 - vv. 12-13a
 - vv. 13b-15
 - v. 16
 - vv. 17-18
 - vv. 21-23
 - vv. 24-26

5. Peter used many different descriptive names for Jesus in this chapter. What does each tell us about Him? (See vv. 6, 13 & 26, 14, 15, 18, 22)

6. Think honestly about your own life and situation today.
 - Can you identify with the cripple? That is, you have situations in your life that appear insurmountable. Perhaps, even your own forgiveness. What is helpful to you in Acts 3?

 - Can you identify with Peter? That is, someone around you needs help. What do you have to offer them?
